

©CLM

1912 not a part of title

Outline of Contents
(Titles underlined)

Nov. 18, 1920

Regional

Geography

APR 5 1921

NEW ENGLAND

Part One - 2

Published by

Society for Visual Education, Inc.

Outline map of United States, with states outlined. Pointer bounds
New England group. Map of New England states.

Some interesting features of New England's coast

Boston Harbor - One of the finest harbors along the Atlantic

Panorama of Boston Harbor

Cape Cod Canal makes a short, safe route between Boston and north south

Boats are shown moving through the canal.

Provincetown, Mass. - Viewed from the harbor

Panorama of harbor showing city in the background.

Many bays indent the coast. Entrance to Marblehead Harbor

Panorama of entrance to harbor, Marblehead, Mass.

The town of Marblehead

Panorama showing the town built close to the rocky shore

Maine's rock-bound coast

View of rocky headlands

Sinking of the land has widened river mouths, making broad bays. Upper Penobscot Bay

View on the Penobscot, just north of Belfast, Maine

Former hilltops now stand as islands off the coast. Mt. Desert Island, seen from Frenchmans Bay

Panorama of Mt. Desert Island

New England's mountains, lakes and valleys

Modern Mohawk trail over the Berkshire Hills

Scene of road leading over the hills.

Views of Lenox and Stockbridge, in the Berkshires

Scenes of the two towns are shown.

A railroad ascends Mount Washington, the loftiest peak in the White Mountains

View of train on ascent to Mt. Washington

Crawford Notch in the White Mountains

Panoramic view from head of Crawford Notch, New Hampshire

Franconia Notch, seen across Echo Lake, in the White Mountains

Panorama of mountains from Echo Lake

Mount Tom and Mount Holyoke in Massachusetts

Two panoramas showing mountains in the background are given.

Lake Champlain - 125 miles long, lying between Vermont and New York

View of lake

Burlington, Vermont, with a large lumber trade, has an excellent harbor on Lake Champlain

Panoramic view of Burlington water-front, - lumber yards and concrete mole in foreground.

What are New England's industries?

Poultry farming is a profitable business

Scene showing chickens in large poultry yard

Fine dairy herds are a common sight

View shows dairy cattle on slope

Sheep are pastured on the grassy hillsides

Flock of sheep

Apples and other small fruits are successfully cultivated

Scene showing the picking of apples and packing apples in boxes

Shipping apples to market

Scene showing crates of apples being unloaded from wagon to station platform
- Courtesy of U. S. Reclamation Service

Cotton mills, Fall River and New Bedford, Mass.

Panorama of Mills showing extensive buildings in these two towns which manufacture more cotton than is made anywhere in the United States.

Lumbering in the Maine woods

Tree felled and sawed into log lengths - Courtesy of U. S. Signal Corps-
Official

New England lumber is made into ships at Bath, Maine

Panoramic view of wooden ship yards at Bath

Vermont leads the United States in marble. Storage yard in a Rutland quarry

Panorama of yards and piles of marble. Seal, Bureau of Mines.

Polishing marble for use in buildings and monuments

Picture of the polishing of a huge slab of marble - Seal

Shaping a marble column weighing 40 tons

Picture of the column being shaped - Seal

Where the famous Quincy granite is quarried

View of blast in quarry, and of workmen cutting the granite - Seal

A giant derrick lifts these great stones with ease

Close-up view of stone being lifted by derrick - Seal

Smoothing the surface of a block of granite

View of man operating machine by which this is being done - Seal

Nov. 18, 1920

NEW ENGLAND

Part Two

Fishing holds an important place among New England industries

View of fisherman dragging in nets. Close-up view of net and fish.

Men transfer fish from net into boat.

The fishing fleet at Gloucester

Panorama of docks at Gloucester, with fishing boats.

Among the world's fish markets, Boston stands second only to London

Unloading fish at Boston dock

Unloading fish at a cold storage dock in Provincetown harbor

Shovelling fish from boat to "cage" by which fish are transported to the store house.

Sorting the fish into trays, which are then stored in cold, dark rooms

View of interior, fish house, showing the cage emptying its contents on a table from which the fish are sorted.

Lobster-catching

Picture of lobster trap being hauled up and emptied. View of fisherman holding lobster.

Some New England citiesProvidence, R. I. - The biggest city of the smallest state in the Union

Panorama of the city, showing several views.

Worcester, Mass. is known for its iron and steel works

Panoramic view of one of the Worcester iron manufacturing plants.

In the fertile valley of the ConnecticutHartford, Conn. - Reached by ocean vessels, although over 40 miles from the sea

View of the city from the river

The State House at Hartford

View of the Connecticut State Capitol

Middletown, Conn. - With good water-power and shipping facilities

Panorama from the water front, followed by views of manufacturing center and street scenes.

Springfield, Mass. - The largest city of the Connecticut valley

View of Springfield from the river

Portland, Maine, one of New England's chief seaports

Panorama of Portland from the head of Casco Bay

City Hall and business district, Portland

View of same

A street in Portland's residence district

Scene shows shaded street, with Longfellow monument in background

State Street, Boston

View of same

Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

The scene shows Commonwealth Avenue, near Massachusetts Avenue

Public Gardens, Boston Commons

Panorama of Gardens

Massachusetts State Capitol, Boston

View of same

Some of New England's noted historic spots

Plymouth Rock - "The corner-stone of a nation"

View of arcade over the rock and close-up of the rock

Pilgrims Monument, Provincetown. Here the Pilgrims first landed

View of the Monument from the harbor

Washington Elm, Cambridge. Here Washington took command of the Continental army

A view of the elm is shown

"The Minute Man" - Concord's famous statue, made by Daniel C. French

View of same.

Emerson's home at Concord

Panoramic view of Emerson's home

"The Old Manse" - Hawthorne's home, Concord

View of same

"Orchard House" - Where the Alcotts lived in Concord

Picture of same

"Craige House" - Longfellow's home, Cambridge

View of same

"Elmwood" - In this house in Cambridge Lowell lived and died

Picture of Lowell's home

Some famous old schools of New England

Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

View of Yale University, from the top of Hotel Telford - Courtesy of U. S. Signal Corps, Official

Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.

Panorama of campus and college buildings

A view of the campus, Amherst College

Scene shows panorama of Amherst campus

Williams College, Williamstown, Mass

View of campus and buildings

Bowdoin College, where Longfellow was a student and later an instructor

Panorama of Bowdoin campus.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge. Popularly known as "Boston Tech"

Scene shows the Institute across the Charles River, from the esplanade on the Boston side

Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. America's oldest college

Panorama of campus and buildings.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, 1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress